HISTORY OF THE CLASS OF 1947

In 1935, only twelve short years ago, Lydia Harvey, E. S. Bevins, Frank Russell, Margaret Watt, and Sammie Tillery gathered at Farragut Grammar School to begin their education under the motherly care of Miss Elsie Llewellyn. They soon learned their ABC's and were anticipating the second grade.

Mrs. Thelma Johnson made them feel at home in her room, where they were joined by Billy Joe Ward from Farragut. They soon learned many new things in school and felt they were ready and well prepared for promotion.

With no gain in members in the third grade, Miss Margaret Smith pushed them on to the fifth grade.

Miss Beulah Starkey heard their rap and took them in. Here Earl Smith from Bearden joined the group.

Arriving at the sixth grade they found Mi ss Leota Bevins waiting for them. She helped them over the bumps and prepared them to enter junior high school. At this time Mary Ellen Beeler become a member of the group.

Thrilled with their advancement, they realized that they must work much harded to reach their goal, graduation from high school. Mrs. Irene Reynolds and Mr Shivers were their sponsors.

After much hard studying, they were promoted to the eighth grade. Mary Frances Stafford from Martel joined them. Still directing them were Mrs. Reynolds and Mr. Shivers.

In September 1942, everyone crowded into the hot auditorium. All were talking and pushing, and, of course, the freshmen were doing their share. They were so dazed that they could not concentrate on what was being said, but they do remember the principal was advising the mabout high school.

This year eight new members joined the class. They were Wilma Jane Green, Ethel Sowers, and Frank Conner from Blue Grass; Mary Ruth King and Esta Edwards from Currier; Ray Chambers from Alabama; Dorothy Yadon from Ball Camp; and Thelma McReynolds from Farragut. Now with such a large class, Mrs. Reynolds and Mr. Shivers had their hands full.

When they were promoted to the tenth grade, they realized that their dream had come true, as they were no longer freshmen. This year they welcomed Johnnie Mae Nipper from Karns. Mr. McMahan replaced Mr. Shivers as sponsor.

Juniors! Juniors at last! Work was harder, but realizing that there was only one more step to go, they could take it. Mrs. Reynolds was still with them, but Mr. McMahan was replaced by Mr. Cannon. Here Ada Huskey from Knoxville High School joined the group.

September—September, 1946. Seniors! Yes, seniors they were! Bettye Babb and Lloyd Smith from Farragut; Rose Mary Cabbage from Clinton; and Jack Pinkston from the armed service joined them. Mrs. Reynolds still claimed them, but Mr. Cannon was replaced by Mr. Gibson.

CLASS WILL OF 1947

We, the graduating class of 1946-47, do make and declare this, our last will to be as follows:

To the faculty, who have helped us so faithfully, we bequeath our appreciation and hope that they will have an unbroken succession of happy days to come.

We give and bequeath to the Junior class the responsibility of carrying on the Annual and any other activities which have started.

Bettye Babb leaves her love for wearing blue jeans to Betty Joe Stafford.

Mary Ellen Beeler wills her beautiful hair to those unfortunate people who have to roll their hair every night.

E. S. Bevins wills his love for blondes to Dale Graham.

Rose Mary Cabbage wills her A grades to Patricia Fox.

Ray Chambers wills his love for the Hobbs girls to Carlton Ward.

Frank Conner leaves his ability to hobo to Keith Spangler.

Esta Edwards wills her love for the freshman boys to Beulah.

Wilma Jane Green wills her blushes to Virginia Light.

Lydia Harvey wills her ability to be cheerleader to Becky Sharp.

Wanda Hobbs wills her love for dimples to Eva Laughlin.

Ada Huskey wills her love for Knoxville High to Carl Coker.

Mary Ruth King leeaves her place in the library beside Bland Winfrey to Barbara Ogle.

Thelma McReynolds wills her ability to play the guitar to Imogene Lumpkin.

CLASS WILL OF 1947

Johnnie Mae Nipper leaves her ability to jitterbug to Shiela Sapanas.
Jack Pinkston leaves his ability to work chemistry problems to Marvin Ogle.
Bill Ritter leaves his ability to play basketball to Charles Coker.
Frank Russell wills his ability to be President of the Senior class to Wayne Hartzog.
Earl Smith leaves his plug of tobacco to Estes Stookesbury.
Lloyd Smith wills his love for Senior English to any Junior who thinks he can love it more.
Ethel Sowers leaves her beautiful long hair to Zelma Cogdill.
Mary Frances Stafford wills her ability to play the piano to Douglas Crowder.
Sammie Lou Tillery wills her love for chewing gum to Peggy Greene.
Billy Joe Ward wills his fondness for women to Bland Winfrey.
Margaret Watt wills her love for the Iveys to Betty Herndon.
Dorothy Yadon wills her love for red hair to Grace Adams.
Besides these gifts we leave—on our own free will—the memories of our past.
In witness whereof: We, the Senior class of 1946-47 de hereby seal our last will, this twentieth day of May, 1947.

FARRAGUT SCHOOL SONG

We are the folks of Farragut School,
From the old Tenth down in Knox.
The fairest school on earth we ween,
'Tis built of brick and rocks.
It stands upon the grandest hill
In dear East Tennessee;
With smiling valley fair to see,
Blue mountains, royal homes.

Chorus:

Then hurrah for the white and the navy too
Our colors brave and true.
Let us lift aloft our motto fair,
Tis deeds not words, we do.
We're not afraid of good hard work,
We're never known to shirk
We're from the country, proud to say
Hurrah! hurrah! hurray!

Our school will give the training
That fits one for real life;
Be it cooking, teaching, farming,
Farragut fits one for the strife.
Then here's to the school we love so well;
May she live and prosper too;
Her sons and daughters honor her
In the big school of the world.
